

EXONIANA DO YOU REMEMBER?

Can you identify the location of this mystery photo (left)? Special delivery memories and first-class anecdotes from any era are most welcome. Answers and/or reminiscences will be published in the next issue. Mail to Exoniana, c/o The Exeter Bulletin, Phillips Exeter Academy, Communications Office, 20 Main Street, Exeter, NH 03833.

ANSWER TO THE LAST ISSUE:

Exonians were timely when identifying the grandfather clock located in the Louis Kahn–designed Phillips Exeter Academy Library (above), also known as the Class of '45 Library honoring Dr. Lewis Perry.

AND THE WINNER IS:

NANCY (WELLMAN) WASON '77 of Barrington, NH, who received a Phillips Exeter Academy cheese-and-beverage picnic pack for two. “Of course, I remember this beautiful grandfather clock in the entrance to the new library. The photographer is standing near the door to the ground-floor Periodicals Room. On the edges of the photo you can just see the entrance doors in the background and the end of the marble stairs railings in the foreground. The windows look out on Front Street. I’ve had the pleasure of passing through this entry many times as a day student, a summer library aide and as a local alumna. The library was my home at the Academy, full of many memories.”
